

The seal of the State of South Dakota is a large, circular emblem with a serrated outer edge. It features a central illustration of a landscape with a river, a plow, and a sheaf of wheat. The text "SEAL OF THE STATE OF SOUTH DAKOTA" is written around the inner border, and "1889" is at the bottom. The motto "UNDER GOD THE PEOPLE RULE" is inscribed in a smaller circle above the central image. Two stars are positioned on either side of the central scene.
